2016 REBATE RECAP

Price Electric members received $17,721.46 from the 2016 PEC energy efficiency rebate program. Refrigerators were the most popular Energy Star appliance purchased, followed by dishwashers. However, the most popular rebate item was LED lightbulbs—members received rebates on 572 LED lightbulbs in 2016! Members improved energy efficiency in their homes by installing Energy Star appliances, energy-efficient lighting solutions, water heaters, HVAC and more.

Price Electric members also received energy efficiency incentives worth $43,549.80 from Focus on Energy. Residential members were eligible to receive Simple Energy Efficiency packs for their homes, as well as in-store discounts on lighting and appliances. Farm and business incentives were also available. Visit www.focusonenergy.com for more information on Focus on Energy's incentive program.

PEC is excited to announce our 2017 rebate program, which includes the return of Focus on Energy appliance recycling. Contact Focus on Energy to recycle your old (working) refrigerator or freezer—they will pick up the old unit, plus you will be eligible to receive a $35 rebate from Focus on Energy and the $25 PEC appliance recycling rebate!

2017 PEC Rebate Forms are now available at www.price-electric.com or at the PEC office in Phillips. Please note that rebates must be submitted within three months of purchase or installation.

PEC RECEIVES ACRE AWARD

Francis Gwinn, PEC's District 9 director, recently attended the Wisconsin Electric Cooperative Association annual meeting in Stevens Point. The WECA meeting included the annual business meeting, awards, and presentations by Federated Rural Insurance, NRECA, CFC (the cooperative's lender), and the Action Committee for Rural Electrification (ACRE). ACRE is a grassroots federal political action committee (PAC) of electric cooperatives. ACRE supports legislative and regulatory actions that are beneficial to cooperatives and their members.

Robert Kretschmar, the state chairman of ACRE, presented an award to Gwinn at the meeting, signifying 100% PEC management membership in ACRE. Membership is a yearly commitment to the organization for its continued work on the behalf of cooperatives, and each fall the directors and management staff at PEC renews their pledge.
